She was honored to be a finalist for the Governor's School for the Arts 2023 in instrumental music, for both piano and viola. Johanna is deeply grateful to the many teachers who shaped her musical journey and to her family and friends for their unwavering support. This fall, she will attend Virginia Tech University as a Psychology major on the pre-med track and a member of the Honors Program.

SENIOR CELEBRATION

Luke Spencer, Violin, Homeschool

Luke has been playing violin since he was 7, and has enjoyed playing in both YAOLA orchestra (in Los Angeles) and CKYO. He has made great memories and enjoys playing with others. Luke would like to thank his former teacher in CA, Laurie Driskill, and his current teacher, Daniel Carwile, for teaching and helping him through so many years. He would also like to thank his conductor, Marcello, for his enthusiasm and the energy he puts into orchestra. This fall Luke will be attending the University of Kentucky and majoring in Human Health Sciences for a physical therapy track. He plans on continuing to play in one of the orchestras there.

Grace Sun, Piano, Paul Laurence Dunbar High School

Grace Sun is a senior in the Math, Science, and Technology Center (MSTC) at Paul Laurence Dunbar High School. She has played piano for 13 years and violin for 8 years, and joined CKYO in her junior year on piano. Her musical involvement has included the Governor's School for the Arts, examinations with the Associated Board of the Royal Schools of Music, National Federation of Music Clubs Festivals, and mentoring at Friends in Music. Grace would like to thank May Man, with whom she studied piano, and Rebecca Goff and Anna Watts, her school orchestra directors. Grace will be attending Stanford University in the fall, where she hopes to study Electrical Engineering while continuing to play music.

Nina Tay, Viola, Paul Laurence Dunbar High School

Nina Tay is a senior in the Math, Science, and Technology Center at Paul Laurence Dunbar High School. She began playing the viola when she was eight years old. She has been a member of CKYO since she was in 5th grade, and has been a member of the Symphony Orchestra for the past three years. She has also participated in KMEA All-State Orchestra during all four years of high school. Nina would like to thank her private teacher, Dale Jones, for introducing her to the viola and supporting her throughout her musical journey. This fall, Nina will be attending Northwestern University, majoring in biological sciences on a pre-med track while also continuing to play viola throughout college.

SCHOOLS & TEACHERS

Thank you to all our private and school music teachers. CKYO affirms its support for all public and private school instrumental music programs and we recognize, appreciate, and value the critical role private and school music teachers play in the development of all our student musicians. This season, our students come from 12 counties and almost 40 different schools in Central Kentucky.

Thank you to the coaches and guest conductors who helped our orchestras prepare throughout this concert cycle!
